The U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission invites you to attend its 25th Annual Symposium for International Market Authorities on Regulation of Derivatives, Products, Markets and Financial Intermediaries on October 24 - 27, 2017. This special program is meant to be a comprehensive educational experience about futures and derivatives regulation. Over its 25 year history, the program has grown in depth of topics and diversification of participant to make it one of the most respected events for regulators.

Participants can expect to explore the fundamentals of futures and derivatives regulation and current issues facing regulators with experts from the CFTC, industry and other U.S. regulators. Speakers also will discuss market trends in the global economy. The optional pre-meeting program will entail a visit to the US Congress.

*We encourage regulators from diverse jurisdictions with markets at various levels of development to attend this symposium. The interplay between representatives of developing and mature markets will lead to a lively and instructive sharing of knowledge, experiences, and opinions that are sure to be beneficial to all participants. Register early and be a part of this global conversation and learning event by going to CFTC Symposium 2017 Registration Form
